St. John Eudes was a French missionary and the founder of the Congregation of Our Lady of Charity and was also the author of the liturgical worship of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. He was born at Ri, France on November 14th, 1601. At the age of fourteen he took a vow of chastity and since the time he was a child, he tried to live in imitation of the Lord Jesus. When he was ordained a priest in 1625, at the age of 24, he was immediately thrust into the service of victims of the plague, whom he cared for at great risk to his own life. He also began preaching missions and was known as the greatest preacher of his age, preaching missions all over France, especially throughout Normandy. In 1643 he founded the Society of Jesus and Mary for the education of priests and for missionary work. He was also instrumental in encouraging devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Holy Heart of Mary, writing the first book ever on the devotion to the Sacred Hearts, "Le Coeur Admirable de la Très Sainte Mère de Dieu". He died at Caen, on August 19th, 1680. His virtues were declared heroic by Leo XIII, on January 6th, 1903. The miracles proposed for his beatification were approved by Pius X, May 3, 1908, and he was beatified April 25th, 1909. He was canonized in 1925.

Father Philip George, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Sparks, will be here for the Annual Mission Co-Op next weekend (August 22-23) to speak at the masses about support for his diocese in India, especially for the education of the seminarians studying for the priesthood.

Create in me
a clean heart,
O God,
and renew
a right spirit
within me.
— Psalms 51:10
