Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SAINTS ISAAC JOGUES, JEAN DE BRÉBEUF, & COMPANIONS

Saints Isaac Jogues, Jean de Brébeuf, and Companions were the first martyrs of the North American continent officially recognized by the Church.

As a young Jesuit, Isaac Jogues, a man of learning and culture, taught literature in France. He gave up that career to work among the Huron Indians in the New World, and in 1636, he and his companions, under the leadership of Jean de Brébeuf, arrived in Quebec. The Hurons were constantly warred upon by the Iroquois, and in a few years Father Jogues was captured by the Iroquois and imprisoned for 13 months. His letters and journals tell how he and his companions were led from village to village, how they were beaten, tortured, and forced to watch as their Huron converts were mangled and killed.

The ministry and sacrifices these saints made challenges each of us, causing us to ask just how deep is our faith and how strong our desire to serve even in the face of death. Saints Isaac Jogues, Jean de Brébeuf, and Companions are the Patron Saints of North America Norway.
