John Vianney was a man with vision: He wanted to become a priest. But he had to overcome his meager formal schooling, which inadequately prepared him for seminary studies. His failure to comprehend Latin lectures forced him to discontinue. But his vision of being a priest urged him to seek private tutoring. After a lengthy battle with the books, John was ordained. Situations calling for “impossible” deeds followed him everywhere. As pastor of the parish at Ars, John encountered people who were indifferent and quite comfortable with their style of living. His vision led him through severe fasts and short nights of sleep. With Catherine Lassagne and Benedicta Lardet, he established La Providence, a home for girls. Only a man of vision could have such trust that God would provide for the spiritual and material needs of all those who came to make La Providence their home. His work as a confessor is John Vianney’s most remarkable accomplishment. In the winter months he was to spend 11 to 12 hours daily reconciling people with God. In the summer months, this time was increased to 16 hours. Who, but a man with vision, could keep going with ever-increasing strength? In 1929, Pope Pius XI named him the patron of parish priests worldwide.

“And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

BLACK AND INDIAN Special 2nd Collection

Next weekend's special 2nd collection benefits the Black and Indian Missions. Your contributions support missionaries here in the United States who are evangelizing in Black and Indigenous Catholic communities. It is only through the generosity of Church members that evangelization among Black and Native American, Eskimo and Aleut communities has been possible for more than 125 years. Churches and schools depend on annual evangelization grants to continue their programs and pastoral activities. Our diocese benefits directly from this collection: Bishop Manogue Catholic High School receives a grant from the Black and Indian Missions. Thank you for your prayerful support of the collection for the Black and Indian Missions.

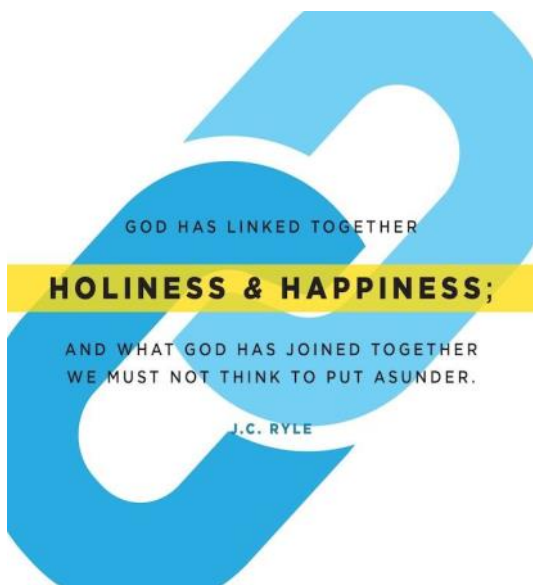

Please join our parish in support of the 2021 Catholic Services Appeal: We Walk Together With Christ. Your gift directly supports our seminarians, retired priests, Catholic schools, our youth and young adults, the annual conference, and parish religious education. Whether you attend OLT year-round or seasonally, please consider contributing. Thank you for supporting us and our diocese. You can donate by mailing us a check with your pledge card or by visiting <https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/ourladyoftahoe> and selecting CSA as your fund. Thank you SO MUCH to everyone who has donated so far!
