On July 4, the Catholic Church celebrates St. Elizabeth of Portugal, a queen who served the poor and helped her country avoid war during the 13th and 14th centuries. Elizabeth was born in 1271, the daughter of King Pedro III of Aragon and his wife Constantia. Even in her youth, Elizabeth showed a notable devotion to God through fasting, regular prayer, and a sense of life's seriousness. While still very young, she was married to King Diniz of Portugal, a marriage that would put her faith and patience to the test. King Diniz was faithfully devoted to his country, known as the "Worker King" because of his diligence. Unfortunately, he generally failed to live out the same faithfulness toward his wife, although he is said to have repented of his years of infidelity. Following King Diniz's death in 1325, Elizabeth had become a Franciscan of the Third Order, and had gone to live in a convent that she had established some years before. The work of promoting peace is anything but a calm and quiet endeavor. It takes a clear mind, a steady spirit, and a brave soul to intervene between people whose emotions are so aroused that they are ready to destroy one another. This is all the more true of a woman in the early 14th century. But Elizabeth had a deep and sincere love and sympathy for humankind, an almost total lack of concern for herself, and an abiding confidence in God. These were the tools of her success. She was solemnly canonized in the Holy Year of 1625.

To all our parking lot volunteers - THANK YOU! You have taken time from the busy-ness of your own schedule to participate in this very important fundraiser and your efforts are greatly appreciated! Know that God sees and rewards those who work diligently for Him with little or no regard for earthly recognition. Blessings to you all!

Our participation in the Peter's Pence Collection gives us an opportunity to be a witness of charity to our brothers and sisters around the world. This collection will be taken next weekend, July 10 & 11. Gifts to this collection help the Holy Father support victims of war, natural disasters, others most in need of assistance, as well as the needs of the Holy See. Pope Francis encourages each person to be a witness of charity. You can participate through your donations, prayers, and outreach to spread the message of need. Please be generous. Thank you!

Last weekend's collection came to $3,822.00. Thank you so much for your faithful support! Our CSA pledges total $25,870.00. That's 48% of our goal. Please donate if you can! Thank You!

As disciples of Jesus Christ, and in the name of Mary, Our Lady of Tahoe Catholic community welcomes and embraces all those who come to us. With guidance of the Holy Spirit, through worship, the sacraments, and loving service, we provide for one another's spiritual and material needs. In being so nourished, we reach out in faith to serve the larger community.

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, and they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness.”

Together in Holiness - Saturday, September 11

Together in Marriage is an annual marriage enrichment conference series that inspires couples to grow together in holiness and empowers parents to form their children in the Catholic faith. Couples spend one day with one another celebrating the sacraments, exploring new ways to enrich their marriage and family life, and discovering how they can evangelize their families and communities. For questions or more information, contact Conference Coordinator Amelia Arth at amelia@forlifeandfamily.org.

The Office of Stewardship and Development has an opening for an individual seeking full-time employment with the Diocese of Reno. Employment will include competitive compensation along with a generous benefits package. This individual will work under the general supervision of the Chief Development Officer and the Executive Administrative Assistant in the department and will need to perform a variety of deadline driven professional level administrative duties including secretarial and clerical work. If interested, please forward a cover letter, resume and Job application found on the Diocese of Reno website by Friday, June 4, 2021 via email to Mary Jean Snow at MaryS@catholicreno.org and direct all other inquiries to her at (775) 326-9425.
