St. Hilary of Poitiers: Feast day: January 13

Hilary was born to pagan parents of Poitiers, France, in 315. After training in the classics and philosophy, Hilary married. He and his wife had one daughter, Afra. All who knew Hilary said he was a friendly, charitable, and gentle man. Hilary's studies led him to read Scripture. He became convinced that there was only one God, whose Son became man and died and rose to save all people. This led him to be baptized along with his wife and daughter. This gentle and courteous man became a staunch defender of the divinity of Christ. He was devoted to writing some of the greatest theology on the Trinity and was, like his Master, in being labeled a "disturber of the peace." In a very troubled period in the Church, his holiness was lived out in both scholarship and controversy. The people of Poitiers chose Hilary to be their bishop in 353. As Bishop, he was soon taken up with battling what became the scourge of the fourth century, Arianism, which denied the divinity of Christ. The heresy spread rapidly. Saint Jerome said, "The world groaned and marveled to find that it was Arian." When Emperor Constantius ordered all the bishops of the West to sign a condemnation of Athanasius, the great defender of the faith in the East, Hilary refused and was banished from France to far off Phrygia. There, too, his pastoral solicitude led him to work tirelessly for the re-establishment of the Church's unity, based on the correct faith, as formulated by the Council of Nicea. To this end, he began writing his most important and most famous dogmatic work: "De Trinitate" (On the Trinity). Eventually he was called the "Athanasius of the West" and the "Hammer of the Arians." Fearing Hilary's arguments, Arian's followers begged the emperor to send Hilary home. The emperor, believing Hilary was also undermining his authority, recalled him. Hilary's writings show that he could be fierce in defending the faith but in dealing with the bishops who had given in to the Arian heresy, he was charitable. He showed them their errors and helped them to defend their faith. Though the emperor called Hilary "disturber of the peace," Saints Jerome and Augustine praised him as "teacher of the churches." Hilary died in 367. His feast day is celebrated today throughout the universal Church. In 1851, Blessed Pius IX proclaimed him a doctor of the Church.

Special Second Collection: Latin America

The Collection for the Church in Latin America is an important opportunity for U.S. Catholics to express their solidarity with Catholics in Latin America. The church in Latin America has diverse needs. Some grants go to evangelization in remote areas, while others strengthen programs that are already flourishing so that they can continue their good work. Many family and catechetical ministry projects funded by this collection offer families and communities a way to strengthen, affirm, and celebrate life together in faith, offering a different and hopeful vision of relationships with one another and with God. Our diocese will take up this collection this weekend. Please be generous in this Collection and take this opportunity to share your faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers,

Bishop Mueggenborg

Last weekend's collection came to $1,534.00. Thank You!

The Bible says in: James 1:17 – Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. As we come to the beginning of a New Year and take a moment to glance back at all the events and happenings of 2021, it is so reassuring to know that we serve a God who is unchanging and who will be our guide in 2022.

Here at Our Lady of Tahoe, the needs continue to exist and even expand, as we endeavor to reach our community with the Gospel, while creating an atmosphere for ministry to the family of God. We have been blessed greatly in 2021 yet know that great challenges and opportunities lie ahead.

Your 2022 offering envelopes are on the table in the back of the church. The boxes are in alphabetical order. If you do not have a set, but would like one, please contact Susan in the office. You can also contribute online at <https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/ourladyoftahoe>.

Thank you for your faithfulness over the years in generous giving of tithes and offerings. May God continue to bless you!
