Saint Paul of the Cross' Story: Born in northern Italy in 1694, Paul Daneo lived at a time when many regarded Jesus as a great moral teacher but no more. After a brief time as a soldier, he turned to solitary prayer, developing a devotion to Christ's passion. Paul saw in the Lord's passion a demonstration of God's love for all people. In turn that devotion nurtured his compassion and supported a preaching ministry that touched the hearts of many listeners. He was known as one of the most popular preachers of his day, both for his words and for his generous acts of mercy. In 1720, Paul founded the Congregation of the Passion, whose members combined devotion to Christ's passion with preaching to the poor, and rigorous penances. Known as the Passionists, they add a fourth vow to the traditional three of poverty, chastity, and obedience, to spread the memory of Christ's passion among the faithful. Paul was elected superior general of the Congregation in 1747, spending the remainder of his life in Rome. Paul of the Cross died in 1775 and was canonized in 1867. Over 2,000 of his letters and several of his short writings have survived. Reflection - Paul's devotion to Christ's passion must have seemed eccentric if not bizarre to many people. Yet it was that devotion that nurtured Paul's compassion and supported a preaching ministry that touched the hearts of many listeners. He was one of the most popular preachers of his day, known for both his words and his generous acts of mercy.

Opening Rites #5 – Penitential Rite

“When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, ‘Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven.’” Matthew 9:2

After recognizing we are in the presence of God, the first liturgical action we make is to acknowledge our sins. This is an important point; Christ came to save humanity from sin and death, and so we acknowledge that we are sinners in need of God's mercy. This is not simply a moment to feel guilty, but to be honest, and recognize our need for a savior. Following this, the celebrant will offer a minor absolution, which brings with it forgiveness of venial sins. And this too is significant; our repentance is always met by God's mercy—the only sin God can't forgive is the one we do not repent of. Why do you think we confess to “Almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters?” What does it mean to repent of “what I have done and what I have failed to do?” #EucharisticRevival
