Saint Anthony Mary Claret's Story - The "spiritual father of Cuba" was a missionary, religious founder, social reformer, queen's chaplain, writer and publisher, archbishop, and refugee. He was a Spaniard whose work took him to the Canary Islands, Cuba, Madrid, Paris, and to the First Vatican Council. In his spare time as weaver and designer in the textile mills of Barcelona, Anthony learned Latin and printing: The future priest and publisher was preparing. Ordained at 28, he was prevented by ill health from entering religious life as a Carthusian or as a Jesuit but went on to become one of Spain's most popular preachers. Anthony spent 10 years giving popular missions and retreats, always placing great emphasis on the Eucharist and devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was said that his rosary was never out of his hand. At age 42, he founded a religious institute of missionaries beginning with five young priests, known today as the Claretians. Anthony was appointed to head the much-neglected archdiocese of Santiago in Cuba. He began its reform by almost ceaseless preaching and hearing of confessions and suffered bitter opposition mainly for opposing concubinage and giving instruction to black slaves. A hired assassin—whose release from prison Anthony had obtained—slashed open his face and wrist. Anthony succeeded in getting the would-be assassin's death sentence commuted to a prison term. His solution for the misery of Cubans was family-owned farms producing a variety of foods for the family's own needs and for the market. This invited the enmity of the vested interests who wanted everyone to work on a single cash crop—sugar. Besides all his religious writings are two books he wrote in Cuba: Reflections on Agriculture and Country Delights. He was recalled to Spain for a job he did not relish—being chaplain for the queen. Anthony went on three conditions: He would reside away from the palace; he would come only to hear the queen's confession and instruct the children; and he would be exempt from court functions. In the revolution of 1868, he fled to Paris with the queen's party, where he preached to the Spanish colony. All his life Anthony was interested in the Catholic press. He founded the Religious Publishing House, a major Catholic publishing venture in Spain, and wrote or published 200 books and pamphlets. At Vatican I, where he was a staunch defender of the doctrine of infallibility, Anthony won the admiration of his fellow bishops. Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore remarked of him, "There goes a true saint." At the age of 63, he died in exile near the border of Spain. Reflection - Jesus foretold that those who are truly his representatives would suffer the same persecution as he did. Besides 14 attempts on his life, Anthony had to undergo such a barrage of the ugliest slander that the very name Claret became a byword for humiliation and misfortune. The powers of evil do not easily give up their prey. No one needs to go looking for persecution. All we need to do is be sure we suffer because of our genuine faith in Christ, not for our own whims and lack of prudence. Saint Anthony Mary Claret is a Patron Saint of Weavers.

Opening Rites #6 - Kyrie Eleison

"Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."

1 Timothy 1:15

In every Mass, the Kyrie Eleison ("Lord, have mercy") is said in some way, shape, or form. This prayer is very, very ancient—so ancient in fact, that even when the Mass was celebrated in Latin, it was kept in the original Greek which preceded it. It even predates the various schisms in the Church and is still used in the liturgies of almost all of the Apostolic Churches (i.e., Catholics, Orthodox, Coptics, etc.). This is a useful thing to meditate on—though we are separated and do not yet have union with each other, we still all implore God's mercy with the same prayer and even the same words: "Kyrie Eleison—Lord, have mercy" Are there areas in your life that need conversion? What is a prayer that you remember from your childhood that has always stayed with you?

Outreach is again giving NEW jackets to each of our 150 children in the coming months. If you would like to make a donation by purchasing a child's jacket (ages 2-17, male/female), they can be placed in the back of church in the box labeled "Outreach Jackets" by November 20th. Or if you prefer to make a monetary donation, make the check out to Outreach - and in the memo line put "Winter Jackets"- and give the check to Susan in the office or in the weekend collection basket. We have the sizes of the children and our team will buy the needed jackets. This year is Outreach's 30th year of assisting our local NV and CA families! We have been blessed with your past assistance and thank all of our wonderful parishioners and visitors who continue to support this worthy cause!

A representative from the Holy Land Co-op is here THIS weekend with many beautiful religious items for sale. He will have his goods set up in the parish hall and is here both Saturday and Sunday.
