Saint Callistus I was a slave in the imperial Roman household. Put in charge of the bank by his master, he lost the money he deposited, fled, and was caught. After serving time for a while, he was released to make some attempt to recover the money. Apparently he carried his zeal too far, being arrested for brawling in a Jewish synagogue. This time he was condemned to work in the mines of Sardinia. Through the influence of the emperor's mistress, he was released and went to live at Anzio. After winning his freedom, Callistus was made superintendent of the public Christian burial ground in Rome—still called the cemetery of Saint Callistus—probably the first land owned by the Church. The pope ordained him a deacon and made him his friend and adviser. Callistus was elected pope by a majority vote of the clergy and laity of Rome, and thereafter was bitterly attacked by the losing candidate, Saint Hippolytus, who let himself be set up as the first antipope in the history of the Church. The schism lasted about 18 years. Hippolytus is venerated as a saint. He was banished during the persecution of 235 and was reconciled to the Church. He died from his sufferings in Sardinia. He attacked Callistus on two fronts—doctrine and discipline. Hippolytus seems to have exaggerated the distinction between Father and Son—almost making two gods—possibly because theological language had not yet been refined. He also accused Callistus of being too lenient, for reasons we may find surprising:

- 1) Callistus admitted to Holy Communion those who had already done public penance for murder, adultery, and fornication;
- 2) he held marriages between free women and slaves to be valid—contrary to Roman law;
- 3) he authorized the ordination of men who had been married two or three times;
- 4) he held that mortal sin was not a sufficient reason to depose a bishop;
- 5) he held to a policy of leniency toward those who had temporarily denied their faith during persecution.

Callistus was martyred during a local disturbance in Trastevere, Rome, and is the first pope—except for Peter—to be commemorated as a martyr in the earliest martyrology of the Church. He is the patron saint of cemetery workers.

Opening Rites #4 – And With Your Spirit

“I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.”

Galatians 2:20 NIV

Whenever the priest offers the blessing “The Lord be with you,” the people respond with an odd statement: “and with your spirit.” The idea here is that the priest or bishop is acting in the person of Christ—it’s not about him as an individual, but about Jesus working in him. So, the response bids the celebrant to embrace that identity—in a sense, the people’s response is akin to saying, “be priest for us.” How do you see Jesus in your parish priests?

Special Second Collection This Weekend - Propagation of the Faith

On this World Mission Sunday weekend, we celebrate the missionary efforts toward the pastoral and evangelizing programs and needs of more than 1,150 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and remote regions of Latin America. On behalf of Pope Francis, the Society of the Propagation of the Faith takes up a collection to support these programs and needs.

This is a time set aside for us to recommit ourselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. We join in prayer the many workers who minister to more than 2 million children across the globe in the promotion and education of the Catholic faith, often in a context that is hostile to the message of Jesus. We sacrifice with the 28,000 seminarians in formation for the priesthood who benefit from this collection, as well as other causes this Pontifical Mission Society supports under Pope Francis.

Please consider how you can join in prayer and sacrifice for the Universal Church and support the important missionary programs and needs across the world.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,
Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno

Last weekend's collection came to $1,967.00 and the Mission Co-op Appeal came to $2,880.00. Even though the past few years have held challenges for all of us, please note that we do not take your giving lightly. It's gifts like yours that continue to enable us to function as a healthy and expanding church. We desire to continue to reach out into our community with love and concern, but most importantly, the Gospel of Jesus Christ! Again, please know how much we appreciate you!

The month of October, we pray for all those affected by abortion for: increase of faith so they may come to believe in the mercy of God; increase of hope so they can look forward to the joy of redeemed lives; and increase of love so they will be able to accept the love of God and know true love in their hearts.
