Margaret of Scotland was a truly liberated woman in the sense that she was free to be herself. For her, that meant freedom to love God and serve others. Not Scottish by birth, Margaret was the daughter of Princess Agatha of Hungary and the Anglo-Saxon Prince Edward Atheling. She spent much of her youth in the court of her great-uncle, the English king, Edward the Confessor. Her family fled from William the Conqueror and was shipwrecked off the coast of Scotland. King Malcolm befriended them and was captivated by the beautiful, gracious Margaret. They were married at the castle of Dunfermline in 1070. Margaret tried to improve her adopted country by promoting the arts and education. For religious reform she encouraged synods and was present for the discussions which tried to correct religious abuses common among priests and laypeople, such as simony, usury, and incestuous marriages. With her husband, she founded several churches. Margaret was not only a queen, but a mother. She and Malcolm had six sons and two daughters. Margaret personally supervised their religious instruction and other studies. Although she was very much caught up in the affairs of the household and country, she remained detached from the world. Her private life was austere. She had certain times for prayer and reading Scripture. She ate sparingly and slept little in order to have time for devotions. She and Malcolm kept two Lents, one before Easter and one before Christmas. During these times she always rose at midnight for Mass. On the way home she would wash the feet of six poor persons and give them alms. She was always surrounded by beggars in public and never refused them. It is recorded that she never sat down to eat without first feeding nine orphans and 24 adults. In 1093, King William Rufus made a surprise attack on Alnwick castle. King Malcolm and his oldest son, Edward, were killed. Margaret, already on her deathbed, died four days after her husband.

Special Second Collection - 11/19 & 11/20

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By assisting low-income people in making decisions that influence their lives, families, and communities, CCHD aims to end the cycle of poverty. CCHD provides a hand up rather than a handout. The additional goal of CCHD is to inform people about poverty and its causes. The mission of the Scriptures and the tenets of Catholic social teaching are reflected in this technique of educating for justice and assisting those who are poor in speaking and acting for themselves. The Catholic Community for Human Development offers Catholic believers practical opportunity to demonstrate their love for God and neighbor in ways that reflect our baptismal mission and ongoing Eucharistic change. Catholics in the United States generously fund CCHD, particularly through an annual parish collection. CCHD is a crucial component of the social mission of the Church in the United States and a distinctive facet of the Catholic community's extensive commitment to helping low-income individuals, families, and communities.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

The month of November, we remember the Holy Souls in purgatory and pray for all the aborted babies and the mothers who are deceased as a result of an abortion procedure. We also pray for all those impacted by abortion in any way. We are filled with gratitude to God who is all-loving, merciful, forgiving, and waiting to heal those who reach out for help. Liturgy of the Word #1 – Divine Conversation

“The Father spoke one Word, which was His Son, and this Word He speaks always in eternal silence, and in silence must it be heard by the soul.” St. John of the Cross

The Liturgy is fundamentally an action of God. This action can be characterized as a conversation between the Father and the Son—the Son, who shares in our human nature, speaks to the Father on our behalf, and the Father, who is love, speaks eternally this love to and through the Son. This divine conversation takes place throughout the Mass but is most evident in the Liturgy of the Word—In the First Reading we hear the Father speaking His divine plan throughout the ages (usually in the Old Testament, but also in the Acts of the Apostles during Easter). This is followed by the Psalm, which is a prayer offered back to the Father. The Father responds through the words of the New Testament which explains what He is doing. Then we proclaim the alleluia, which literally translates to “all of you, praise God.” Finally, there is the Gospel, where the Father speaks most clearly in and through his Son. And this back and forth continues throughout the rest of the Liturgy. When meditating upon what is happening in Mass, a useful question to ask yourself is “who is speaking right now—Jesus or the Father?”

Last weekend's collection came to $4,961.00. Donating allows us to preach the gospel, make disciples, and support others in our community. We earnestly appreciate your support!

Outreach is again giving NEW jackets to each of our 150 children in the coming months. If you would like to make a donation by purchasing a child's jacket (ages 2-17, male/female), they can be placed in the back of church in the box labeled "Outreach Jackets" by November 20th. Or if you prefer to make a monetary donation, make the check out to Our Lady of Tahoe/Outreach - and in the memo line put "Winter Jackets"- and give the check to Susan in the office or in the weekend collection basket. We have the sizes of the children and our team will buy the needed jackets. This year is Outreach's 30th year of assisting our local NV and CA families! We have been blessed with your past assistance and thank all of our wonderful parishioners and visitors who continue to support this worthy cause!

Thanksgiving Day Mass is Thursday, November 24th at 10am.

Dear Parishioners,

I pray this finds you well. I want to share my endorsement of the efforts of our FOCUS missionaries at UNR to bring students to SEEK. This is a wonderful opportunity that very well could result in many young people encountering Christ and becoming lifelong disciples of Our Lord. I have been to this event several times in the past and have encountered an amazing vision of a vibrant Church that is full of the joy of Christ. With this, I come with a humble request. The FOCUS team and the students need financial assistance to bring as many students as possible to the SEEK conference. If you are able, please be generous in supporting our next generation of faithful, on-fire Catholics. It will be well worth your sacrifice.

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend Daniel Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno

OLT Outreach Christmas Tree for the Children:

We are again giving each of our Outreach Children a $20 gift card. We have 133 children this year. If you wish to participate and bring JOY in the Christmas Spirit to one or more children, please take an envelope from the tree and place your check or cash in it, then put it in the collection basket or send it to Our Lady of Tahoe/Outreach, PO Box 115, Zephyr Cove NV 89448. All donations must be in by the December 3rd & 4th weekend, so we can buy the gift cards and give them to the children on December 10th. Thanking you in advance for your wonderful generosity.
