Saint John of Kanty's Story: John was a country lad who made good in the big city and the big university of Kraków, Poland. After brilliant studies he was ordained a priest and became a professor of theology. The inevitable opposition which saints encounter led to his being ousted by rivals and sent to be a parish priest at Olkusz. An extremely humble man, he did his best, but his best was not to the liking of his parishioners. Besides, he was afraid of the responsibilities of his position. But in the end he won his people's hearts. After some time, he returned to Kraków and taught Scripture for the remainder of his life. John was a serious man, and humble, but known to all the poor of Kraków for his kindness. His goods and his money were always at their disposal, and time and again they took advantage of him. He kept only the money and clothes absolutely needed to support himself. He slept little, ate sparingly, and took no meat. He made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, hoping to be martyred by the Turks. Later John made four subsequent pilgrimages to Rome, carrying his luggage on his back. When he was warned to look after his health, he was quick to point out that, for all their austerity, the fathers of the desert lived remarkably long lives. Reflection - John of Kanty is a typical saint: He was kind, humble, and generous, he suffered opposition and led an austere, penitential life. Most Christians in an affluent society can understand all the ingredients except the last: Anything more than mild self-discipline seems reserved for athletes and ballet dancers. Christmas at least is a good time to reject self-indulgence.

Liturgy of the Word #6 – The Gospel

“The angel said to them, ‘Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.’”

Luke 2:10 NAB

The Gospel has always held a place of honor and prominence in the life of the Church because it conveys to us the words and deeds of Christ. As such, we stand to show our respect for the words of Jesus proclaimed to us who are gathered in His name. But it extends beyond this. Jesus is the definitive revelation of God and God's plan for humanity. And this is because Jesus is both fully God and fully human, processing two natures united in one person. As God, He is the revelation of God, and as human, He reveals humanity to itself (c.f. Gaudium et Spes 22). And so, we listen to the Gospel with particular attention as we discover again who God is and who we are. Who is Jesus in your life? When did you fall in love with Jesus?
