*Honor her for all that
her hands have done,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.*

Proverbs 31:31

Happy Mother's Day!

Isidore has become the patron of farmers and rural communities. In particular, he is the patron of Madrid, Spain, and of the United States National Rural Life Conference. When he was barely old enough to wield a hoe, Isidore entered the service of John de Vergas, a wealthy landowner from Madrid, and worked faithfully on his estate outside the city for the rest of his life. He married a young woman as simple and upright as himself who also became a saint—Maria de la Cabeza. They had one son, who died as a child. Isidore had deep religious instincts. He rose early in the morning to go to church and spent many a holiday devoutly visiting the churches of Madrid and surrounding areas. All day long, as he walked behind the plow, he communed with God. His devotion, one might say, became a problem, for his fellow workers sometimes complained that he often showed up late because of lingering in church too long. He was known for his love of the poor, and there are accounts of Isidore's supplying them miraculously with food. He had a great concern for the proper treatment of animals. He died May 15, 1130, and was declared a saint in 1622, with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri. Together, the group is known in Spain as "the five saints." Reflection - Many implications can be found in a simple laborer achieving sainthood: Physical labor has dignity; sainthood does not stem from status; contemplation does not depend on learning; the simple life is conducive to holiness and happiness. Legends about angel helpers and mysterious oxen indicate that his work was not neglected and his duties did not go unfulfilled. Perhaps the truth which emerges is this: If you have your spiritual self in order, your earthly commitments will fall into order also. "[S]eek first the kingdom [of God] and his righteousness," said the carpenter from Nazareth, "and all these things will be given you besides" (Matthew 6:33).

We're Searching for Volunteers

That time of the year is just around the corner where fun and comradery are experienced and enjoyed by everyone volunteering to work the parking lot fundraiser. If you like meeting new people from everywhere, this is the place for you. Most importantly, you can feel the joy of being a disciple for your church. Volunteers are needed for the weekends starting from Memorial Day weekend (Saturday, May 27, 2023) through Labor Day weekend (Sunday, September 3, 2023). No Sundays/Mondays except on the holiday weekends. It will be a 3-hour shift. The hours for the holidays will be longer to accommodate the visitors. See Cora or call her at 661-917-7330. If you are not able to volunteer, donations are most welcome. Your support is greatly appreciated!

Eucharistic Prayer #10 – The Mystery of Faith

“When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.” Excerpt from the Roman Missal

After the words of Consecration, the priest will proclaim The Mystery of Faith. However, when the priest proclaims those words, he isn't inviting the people to say what the mystery of faith is. Rather, he is declaring that the Mystery of Faith is present here and now; he is speaking of the Eucharist on the altar. The Eucharist is the mystery of our faith. The response we make is our belief in what that means for us: That Christ's sacrifice and our participation in it through the Eucharist brings us life. How are you participating in the death and resurrection of Christ at this moment in your life?

Applications are now being accepted for the Women's Guild's $2,500 annual college scholarship and the $5,000 per semester foundation scholarship. The deadline for submission is Monday, May 15th, at 5pm. Applicants must have a minimum 3.0 GPA and be a member of the OLOT Parish. Those interested can contact Susan in the parish office Monday through Friday from 9am to 3pm.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, and in the name of Mary, Our Lady of Tahoe Catholic community welcomes and embraces all those who come to us. With guidance of the Holy Spirit, through worship, the sacraments, and loving service, we provide for one another's spiritual and material needs. In being so nourished, we reach out in faith to serve the larger community.
