Saint Dominic's Story - If he hadn't taken a trip with his bishop, Dominic would probably have remained within the structure of contemplative life; after the trip, he spent the rest of his life being a contemplative in active apostolic work. Born in old Castile, Spain, Dominic was trained for the priesthood by a priest-uncle, studied the arts and theology, and became a canon of the cathedral at Osma, where there was an attempt to revive the apostolic common life described in Acts of the Apostles. On a journey through France with his bishop, Dominic came face to face with the then virulent Albigensian heresy at Languedoc. The Albigensians-or Cathari, "the pure ones"-held to two principles-one good, one evil-in the world. All matter is evil-hence they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments. On the same principle, they abstained from procreation and took a minimum of food and drink. The inner circle led what some people regarded as a heroic life of purity and asceticism not shared by ordinary followers. Dominic sensed the need for the Church to combat this heresy and was commissioned to be part of the preaching crusade against it. He saw immediately why the preaching crusade was not succeeding: the ordinary people admired and followed the ascetical heroes of the Albigenses. Understandably, they were not impressed by the Catholic preachers who traveled with horse and retinues, stayed at the best inns and had servants. Dominic, therefore, with three Cistercians, began itinerant preaching according to the gospel ideal. He continued this work for 10 years, being successful with the ordinary people but not with the leaders. His fellow preachers gradually became a community, and in 1215 Dominic founded a religious house at Toulouse, the beginning of the Order of Preachers or Dominicans. Dominic's ideal, and that of his Order, was to organically link a life with God, study, and prayer in all forms, with a ministry of salvation to people by the word of God. His ideal: contemplata tradere: "to pass on the fruits of contemplation" or "to speak only of God or with God." Reflection: The Dominican ideal, like that of all religious communities, is for the imitation, not merely the admiration, of the rest of the Church. The effective combining of contemplation and activity is the vocation of truck driver Smith as well as theologian Aquinas. Acquired contemplation is the tranquil abiding in the presence of God and is an integral part of any full human life. It must be the wellspring of all Christian activity. Saint Dominic is the Patron Saint of: Astronomers & Dominican Republic

The special second collection taken up this weekend assists the African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native Catholic communities through the Commission for Catholic Missions. Everyone is encouraged to support the Catholic missions in the United States and to consider a donation to the Commission's efforts to serve minority communities. Your support affects the daily pastoral work of our bishops, consecrated religious women and men, and lay leadership who labor throughout the United States as disciples of Jesus and witnesses to our common faith. Financial donations to the Commission for Catholic Missions provides funding for resources and personnel training to carry out the mission entrusted to the Church in places that would otherwise not experience excellent ministry. A school in our own Diocese, Bishop Manogue Catholic High School, receives a grant from the Commission for Catholic Missions, which serves as tuition assistance for Native American and African American students who would otherwise be unable to afford Catholic education in our Diocese. Please consider a donation to assist Catholic racial minorities and their needs.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno

Lord's Prayer #9 - Deliver Us From Evil

"Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." Matthew 26:41 NIV

When we pray to be delivered from evil, we are praying to be delivered from the evil one, that is, satan. And yet we take courage, because Christ has defeated him, overcoming his whiles in the desert. So we turn to Christ-to Christ in the Scriptures to arm us against the evil one-to Christ in the confessional to free us from our sins-and most especially to Christ in the Eucharist that it might be Christ who lives in us. Do you turn to Christ when you are tempted? Do you have a favorite Scripture passage you turn to when things become difficult?

I invite married and engaged couples throughout the Diocese of Reno who seek to grow closer to our Lord and one another to join me at the third annual Together in Holiness conference. We can never underestimate the mission of married couples and families who order their lives according to God's love first and foremost. Sainly marriages such as these are the source of vocations to the priesthood and religious life and the foundation for faithful marriages of future generations to come.
Most Rev. Daniel H. Mueggenborg
