"Sir, we wish to see Jesus." If this is your request, too, then look to the cross, the life-giving cross, on which was hung the Savior of the whole world. There, we will see Jesus. Today, by God's grace, you and I get to see Jesus. We have heard his words. We have worshiped, prayed, gathered in his name. Jesus died to plant the seed of the gospel in us all, and when we stay connected to him, we bear his fruit. We have been set free from sin, death, and the devil. We have been reminded that we now belong to Jesus and live in his kingdom. Attached to Jesus, we can now bear the fruit of the kingdom. Reminding all the world, through our words and our deeds, that we have a Savior, who has been lifted up, and seeks to draw all the world to himself.

St. Joseph was an ordinary manual laborer although descended from the royal house of David. In the designs of Providence he was destined to become the spouse of the Mother of God. His high privilege is expressed in a single phrase, "Foster-father of Jesus." About him, Sacred Scripture has little more to say than that he was a just man, an expression which indicates how faithfully he fulfilled his high trust of protecting and guarding God's greatest treasures upon earth, Jesus and Mary. The darkest hours of his life may well have been those when he first learned of Mary's pregnancy; but precisely in this time of trial Joseph showed himself great. His suffering, which likewise formed a part of the work of the redemption, was not without great providential import: Joseph was to be, for all times, the trustworthy witness of the Messiah's virgin birth. After this, he modestly retires into the background of holy Scripture. St. Joseph is invoked as patron for many causes. He is the patron of the Universal Church. He is the patron of the dying because Jesus and Mary were at his deathbed. He is also the patron of fathers, of carpenters, and of social justice.

Fr. Oliver Update

Father Oliver is currently living at The Chateau in Gardnerville. He is having some minor health problems and not going out much. A webpage has been set up for those who would like to keep in touch with him and also let us know when he will be up and around again. If you would like to send your greetings to him, go to caringbridge.org and search Oliver Curran. Father O would love to hear from us.

Bible Study: The Book of Revelation

We are six seals in and before we tackle the seventh seal we have been given a glimpse of salvation and the understanding that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit! As disciples of Jesus Christ, and in the name of Mary, Our Lady of Tahoe Catholic community welcomes and embraces all those who come to us. With guidance of the Holy Spirit, through worship, the sacraments, and loving service, we provide for one another's spiritual and material needs. In being so nourished, we reach out in faith to serve the larger community.
